

TROOPERS GUARD FAHNESTOCK HOME

Other Residences Near Peekskill Watched in Hope of Catching Burglars.

A burglar band believed to be operating near Peekskill caused several homes to be under the guard of State troopers to-day. They first were summoned to the summer home of Dr.
Ernest Fahnestock in Putnam Valley township, where there was a robbery and the firing of several shots.

Dr. Fahnestock is a son of the late Harris Fahnestock, New York banker who left $16,000,000. Other troopers are guarding the country home at South Salem, near Brewster, of former State Senator George B.
Agnew.

So far as could be learned, while shots were fired on the Fahnestock place, nobody was hurt. The superintendent of the 8,000-acre estate called for the police, who say they learned unofficially that the place had been robbed.

The troopers who visited the Agnew place said that Mrs. Agnew had called for them, saying that some person was trying to get into her home. Half a dozen servants were questioned and the troopers have a description of the prowler, who the servants said had an automobile.

DISAPPEARS FROM STEAMER.

BUENOS AYRES, Aug. 8.—A. B.
Howard, South American manager of the American Express Company, has disappeared from the steamer Martha Washington, which is on a voyage from Buenos Ayres to New York, says a wireless despatch received here. He has been missing since July 30.

—And, kindly note—

All the coats in this sale have fur under the collar—there is no skimping by making use of silk yokes. Coats are lighter than the average, because of the thorough, patient preparing of pelts. Linings are all silk—no cotton backs. No padding under linings.
Second floor, Old Building.

First Note of Autumn Economy Men's two-trousers suits In a sale at $57.50

These are fall suits—and every suit has two pairs of trousers. In other words—

PRACTICAL ECONOMY.

Away back last winter we thought this out.

We knew that if we could get fabrics from one of the best mills in New England, and have them made into suits with TWO pairs of trousers—And then offer the suits in a sale early in August at a price that would mean something definite and certain in the way of economy—
New York men would be glad.

SO THE SALE IS READY.

The fabrics are fine woollens—Autumn weight, but not too heavy.

The models are single and double-breasted.

Two and three-button types.

Very conservative (for business men who prefer them) or just a bit the reverse—for the sons of business men.

Colorings are blues, gray, browns and heather mixtures—substantial and good.

Note, please that—

The Burlington Arcade Store

—offers these suits, which indicates that Wanamaker specifications have been accurately and completely carried out.

Sizes for almost all men—regular, stout, slim, short, tall.
